

SENATE JOURNAL

February 7, 2005

TWENTY-SECOND DAY

The Senate was called to order at 10:05 a.m., with President John Valentine presiding.

Prayer – Emma Lou Thayne

Pledge of Allegiance – Senator Michael Waddoups

Roll Call – All Senators present except Senator Julander, excused.

READING OF TITLES OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS (PLEASE REFER TO DAY 1, PAGE 8)

On motion of Senator Hale, the Senate voted to have the words of the prayer by Emma Lou Thayne spread upon the pages of the Senate journal.

PRAYER BY EMMA LOU THAYNE

Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed by thy name.

May thy spirit attend this gathering of well-intended servants of the people as they deliberate on the future of our State of Utah. We wish to thank them for their willingness to serve.

This is a season of winter waiting for spring. It is a season of upheaval and the binding up of wounds of weather and war. Across the globe earthquakes and floods have left devastation and death. Wars have claimed lives and injury as cities have been leveled and citizen, as well as combatants, killed.

At our comfortable distance we mourn and send hope via prayers and supplies to share our bounty, intent on bringing peace and freedom to a troubled world.

Yet here too tragedy assails. Even as our six years of drought are being assuaged with abundant snow, communities in our own state have been afflicted with flooding and great loss of homes and property.

Today, here in the safety and plenty of this valley of the Great Salt Lake, this band of elected law makers are privileged to make a difference in what this season, this session, can offer us, their people.

Life the valley swathed in fortuitous snow, our capitol building on this hill is swathed in what portends change. Beneath the bandaged dome of our elegant capitol, skilled hands are shoring up its aging innards, giving it strength to withstand the elements even as its heart and history remain intact. It will continue as a bastion of tradition and force for worthy change.

In its shadow this body meets in temporary quarters to make lasting decisions. May those decisions be the fruit of caring as much as partisanship, of willingness to listen as well as propound, of study as much as stubbornness, of open acceptance of possibility rather than insistence of cemented-in convention. May kindness prevail.

Please bless this elected body with vision to meet the constraints of budget and agenda. May they have less concern for personal aggrandizement and more for the well-being of the public. We, that public, are as subject to the weather of this chamber as a lake or dam is to snowfall. And just as incapable of ordering the munificence of its offerings.

Just as the melting of a record snowfall of this winter must be tempered by the mild weather of spring to bring relief to parched years of drought, so it will take the thoughtful attention of this August body to bring sustenance to the needs of this state in the wake of this critical session of 2005.

May this year's bills be considered and passed with all of the people in mind. With generosity of spirit and recognition of the worth of all of us so diverse citizens.

Under the wraps of change in our elegant capitol building, with a new administration feeling for grounding, may fairness and respect for difference, as well as sameness, prevail in this temporary setting.

What must never be temporary or subject to the whims of weather or fortune is the precious freedom that lights our lives. May these senators be keepers of the faith in that liberty. And in the respect for all the people who so richly deserve it.

For me in the name of Jesus Christ, for others by what they believe.

Amen
